

Guidelines for encouraging teens, kids, and adults to sign "The End of Bullying Begins With Me" petition.

1. Bring printed copies of the petition to your school, religious organization, youth group, or community event.
2. Connect with a teacher, principal, guidance counselor, or other trusted adult to determine how to encourage people to sign it.
3. Establish when, where, and how the petition will be available.
 - Assign who will be responsible for monitoring signatures, answering questions, etc. This could be a student, group of students, or a combination of students and adults.
 - Have the petition available in a public space.
 - Determine when the petition will be available.
4. Promote this activity:
 - Before the event:
 - Create flyers and post them in the school entrance and main office, hallways, bathrooms, lunch rooms, locker rooms—anywhere students would be likely to see them and the school allows postings.
 - Read morning announcements using the text on page two of this guide.
 - Get support from other students who want to help.
 - Day of event:
 - Offer small incentives, such as gum or candy, to everyone who signs.
 - Create a poster that can be placed at the signing table or on the wall.
5. Gather the signatures.
6. Send the signed petition sheet(s) to:
PACER Center
Attn: National Bullying Prevention Center
8161 Normandale Blvd.
Bloomington, MN 55437

“Join the Cause to Prevent Bullying”, sponsored by PACER’s National Bullying Prevention Center

Teens, kids, and adults from across the nation—from California to Maine, from Florida to Washington—and around the globe—from England to Puerto Rico, from the Netherlands to Australia—have signed the online “The End of Bullying Begins with Me” petition and now you can, too!

Why Should I Add My Name?

You can influence change and show you care! Sign the petition to support the movement against bullying. More names = a stronger voice against bullying = more influence to improve the laws that protect students.

How will this information be used?

- Your first name, age, and state will be added to the online “The End of Bullying Begins with Me” petition, at Kids/TeensAgainstBullying.org, along with hundreds of other names.
- If you’d like, your contact information can be added to an e-mail list to receive the featured monthly activity and other updates.

PACER and Kids/Teens Against Bullying do not sell or share your personal information.

The End of Bullying Begins With Me!

Sign the petition and unite in raising awareness of this important cause!

Why Should I Add My Name? You can influence change and show that you care! Sign the petition to support the movement against bullying. More names = a stronger voice against bullying = more influence to improve the laws that protect students.

First	Last	E-mail (provide only if you want to receive occasional updates)	Age	State
1)
2)
3)
4)
5)
6)
7)
8)
9)
10)

How will this information be used? Your first name, age and state will be added to the online “The End of Bullying Begins with Me” petition, at PACER’s National Bullying Prevention Center, along with hundreds of other names. If you’d like, your contact information can be added to an e-mail list to receive the featured monthly activity and other updates. PACER and Kids/Teens Against Bullying do not sell or share your personal information.