Focus on Transition

PACER CENTER
CHAMPIONS FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES™

A free PACER workshop for parents of teens and young adults with disabilities

Focus on Transition

This presentation will help parents understand the importance of planning for their young adult's future employment and independent living.

Topics include:

- Transition legislation
- The five transition areas
- Ways to gather information about your young adult's interests, preferences, strengths, and challenges

About the presenter:

Jayne Spain is a transition specialist at the Minnesota Department of Education. A former associate in special education for the Robbinsdale schools and a teacher of students with disabilities, she has a passion for transition and wants students with disabilities to be active participants in their communities.

Directions to Monticello Community Center

From I-94: Take exit 193 and go north on Highway 25 (toward Monticello). Turn left onto West Sixth Street and then right onto Walnut Street. Proceed one block. The community center is on the right.
