

Imma Listen

Music video by Taylor Zank

Discussion questions

- 1) Imma Listen. Why is this title so impactful?
- 2) What do you think is the prominent message in this video and why is it so important?
- 3) How do you think the student in the video feels when he tries to talk with the adult at home?
- 4) The student in the video calls the teacher, who showed concern, a role model. How did that affect the student's behavior? How did this student then treat another student who he witnessed struggling?
- 5) Mental health issues among students are real. Do you believe that by showing students that they are not alone, it will help them find the support they need? What is more impactful, a teacher's support or a peer's support? Does it matter who reaches out to say they are listening and that they care?
- 6) If you are experiencing bullying, who can you talk to within the school to get help?
- 7) What should students do when they observe a bullying situation?
- 8) What are signs that adults, teachers specifically, can look for to identify a student who is going through a difficult emotional situation such as bullying? What is the best and most effective way for a teacher to approach this student?

Discussion questions developed by Taylor Zank and PACER's National Bullying Prevention Center.