

Teacher and support staff questions:

1. Opening question: What do you find rewarding about working with families from diverse cultures?
2. Do you feel respected and valued by your student's families?
3. Are you satisfied with how often and in what ways the family communicates with you about their child?
 - o If yes, what are they doing that is helpful?
 - o If no, what would you like them to do differently?
4. About their level of participation in school activities?
 - o If yes, what are they doing that is helpful?
 - o If no, what would you like them to do differently?
5. What do your student's families do that contribute to their child's education?
6. What do you consider to be the parent or family's role in a child's education?
7. How would you like parents to be involved in school or in the classroom?
8. What challenges have you observed regarding participation by families?
9. What outcomes have you seen from this type of involvement?
10. What would you like to do to help parents to be more involved or engaged in their child's schooling?
11. What tools do you need to increase the level of Parent Involvement and Engagement?
12. Is there anything else you would like us to know about what is important to you as an educator about the home-school partnership with families from diverse cultures?